

Fig. 1.— SED for the flat blackbody disk, with contributions from star and disk identified. The $n = 4/3$ law is evident between $30 \mu\text{m}$ and 1 mm . The turnover near 1 mm is due to our truncation of the disk at $a_o \approx 270 \text{ AU}$.