Homework 2 (Weeks 2 & 3)
Due Wednesday, July 19, 2006
Astronomy/EPS 12 – The Planets

General Advice: Get started on the reading early (this weekend), there is much of it. The problems only sample a small fraction of the information in the text.

General Info:
This homework is due next Wednesday, the night before the first midterm! The homework will not be graded and handed back before the exam. Solutions will be posted online after Wednesday’s lecture – you will have to check your own answers. I encourage you to copy your homework before you hand it in so you can review your homework. Course material up through this homework (Chapters 1 - 8) will be on the midterm.
